

I am most concerned and abhorred that the FCC may subcumb to lobbying by telemarketeering organization to revoke more stringent measures by individual States, including New Jersey, based on National Do NotCall Law. This law & related extra measures carried out by various States has been the most consumer friendly measure to come in years. On no account should the FCC lean towards vested corporate interest & harm this popular law. You at FCC have better things to do!